

PRESS RELEASE

November 7 2005

Travel Counsellors Ireland goes from strength to strength

Travel Counsellors is delighted to announce that it now has seven Personal Travel Counsellors in Southern Ireland, with a further four joining on November 23.

Darcree Yorke, Gail Buckley, Kathy O Sullivan, Kay Marshall, Sue Cahill and Mary Foyle join the company's first ever Personal Travel Counsellor Lorraine Lawless as Southern Ireland's first home-based agents.

Ireland general manager Cathy Burke said: "I have been delighted by the interest we have had so far and now we have got our first Travel Counsellors on board we are getting even more enquiries. The Travel Counsellors concept combines absolutely fantastic technology with the ethos of going back to basics and providing customers with exceptional customer service. It's a fantastic combination and there is every reason to believe the company is going to be a great success story here. "

Consultants in Southern Ireland interested in speaking to Cathy about the opportunities at Travel Counsellors should have four years experience out of the past five. Cathy can be contacted on 021 489 0079 or mobile 087 2409 744 or by emailing cathy.burke@travelcounsellors.com
